FRENCH CAVALRY PENETRATES TO GATEWAY OF STRASSBURG TODAY

Great Fortified Capital of Alsace-Lorraine is Object of Immense Body of Troops.

OPERATE FROM FOUR POINTS

Men Pour Across Frontier From Belfort and Through Passes of Vosges Mountains.

MEETING STUBBORN ENEMY

French War Office Says Germans Are Abandoning Huge Quantities of War Materials.

MANY PRISONERS ARE TAKEN

Strassburg is Surrounded by Fourteen Forts All Constructed of Concrete and Steel.

(By United Press.)

Paris, August 18.—“On to Strassburg” was the French war slogan today. The great fortified capital of Alsace-Lorraine is the objective of an immense French army now operating from four central points in Alsace-Lorraine. Troops have poured across the frontier from the Belfort fortifications and through the passes of the Vosges mountains into the valley. The French cavalry advance has penetrated to the gateway of Strassburg.

Pressing rapidly forward through Alsace-Lorraine in the general direction of Strassburg the French advance was reported today as overcoming a determined general German resistance. French cavalry supported strongly by artillery and motorcycle detachments, are sweeping the Germans back to the north and east toward the Rhine Valley. The official bulletin issued from the war office early today said:

“The French advance continues steadily driving the enemy before it in the general direction of Strassburg. The Germans are retiring in great disorder, the steady advance of the French being so methodical and rapid that no opportunity is afforded the enemy to reform. The Germans are abandoning huge quantities of war materials, including artillery, ammunition and commissary supplies which are taken possession of by the French forces. Many prisoners are being taken, including deserters.”

The war office today stated that the French army is moving steadily on Strassburg and that the siege of that important German position is imminent. The official bulletin says:

“The army operating in Alsace-Lorraine is moving forward methodically. Many prisoners are being taken and the Germans are falling back upon Strassburg. As the French lines are pushed forward a line of fortifications is being constructed to guard against a flank attack. The tremendous strength of the German fortifications at Strassburg is not underestimated but the French artillery is expected to prove of great benefit when the actual attempt to take the city is initiated.

“A flying squadron of French cavalry has moved forward to Rosheim and developed that the main German column of infantry, heavily supported by artillery is holding a position just to the South of Molsheim.”

Strassburg is known to be surrounded by fourteen forts all constructed of concrete and steel.

More People Are At War That Are At Peace

Of all the people on earth more are at war today than are following the paths of peace. The world has fifty three independent governments or nations under their own rule. Eight of these—England, Russia, Germany, France, Austria, Belgium, Serbia and Montenegro—are now at war, involving their combined population of 837,417,000. The forty-five nations at peace have only 682,733,000 population. Should Japan become involved, the war element would be increased by 67,142,000.

ENGLAND'S MEN ON FIRING LINE

With This Admission From War Office Today, Interest in Impending Battle is Intense.

KING ADDRESSES TROOPS

English Force of More Than 100,000 Men on Continent, But Whereabouts Are Unknown.

(By United Press.)

London, August 18.—With the admission from the war office that England's army is on the firing line, interest in the impending battle became intense today. The British forces numbering in excess of 100,000 men, their whereabouts is a carefully guarded secret, except that they are at the front. This was indicated in an address to the troops sent to General Sir John French today. In it the king said:

“You my soldiers have left home to fight for the safety and honor of my empire. Belgium, whose neutrality we are pledged to keep, has been attacked. France is about to be invaded by the same powerful foe. I have implicit confidence in you. Duty is your watchword. I know it will be nobly done. I shall follow your every movement with the deepest interest and mark with eager satisfaction your daily progress.

“I pray God to bless you and bring you back victorious.”

In announcing that the expedition had landed on the continent the war office emphasizes that to a single man had not been lost and that the expedition was fully equipped for service. Persistent rumors that the German crown prince had been wounded in action and is in a dangerous condition at Aix La Chapelle are circulated in Amsterdam. The Hague and Paris. They can not be confirmed here.

This is Estimate of London Transportation Committee Today

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 18.—The American transportation committee today estimated that more than 20,000 stranded Americans will be able to leave England within the next week. Eighteen steamships capable of carrying this number of passengers are scheduled to sail from English ports for the United States and Canada within that time.

GERMAN OFFENSE GAINING GROUND

Berlin War Office Says it is Only Matter of Days Until Belgian Capital Will be Captured.

INFANTRY IS ON ADVANCE

Everybody in German Official Life is Occupied With War Detail-Kaiser's Personal Part.

BY KARL H. VON WIEGAND.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

The Hague, Aug. 18.—Advices from the United Press Berlin bureau, reaching here today, say the German offensive movement against France and Belgium is reported well in progress. While all details are suppressed it is stated at the war office that the capture of Brussels is now considered only a question of days. The German infantry advance, upon which great dependence is felt, has already commenced.

Everybody in official life is occupied with the war detail. Until the Kaiser and the general staff left for Mainz the official war bulletins were received by the Kaiser and the Chancellor in the palace and the Kaiser himself drafted the comments thereon.

One of the most prominent features of the war is the friendship manifested everywhere for Americans. The war-bound Americans are being shown over courtesy not alone in Berlin, but in Munich, Frankfurt and elsewhere. The civil authorities have taken the lead everywhere in making the involuntary stay of the Americans pleasant. The leading newspapers eulogize Americans and in their editorial columns urge all Germans to show every consideration and kindness to Americans.

The offer of the American colony of their church in Berlin for use as a hospital and the statement that the American Red Cross has included Germany in its comprehensive relief plans, has touched every German heart. The American flag and the German standard are entwined everywhere in Berlin. Not alone is this the case with the stores but it is the rule in private houses and thousands of Germans are wearing crossed American and German flags on their breasts. The display of American flags is second only to that of Germany and they outnumber the Austrian. From outward appearances it would seem as though the United States were the third member of the Triple Alliance.

The Berlin chamber of commerce, has opened a long list of German families who are willing to take Americans without funds to board without cost to them. Many of the hotels announce they are willing to trust Americans who need food or

1915 YEARLY MEETING HERE

Hicksite Friends Will Gather in Rushville Next Year.

The yearly meeting of the Hicksite Friends will be held here next year, according to a dispatch from Anderson. They have just closed the 1914 meeting at the Spring Valley meeting house near Pendleton. A drastic resolution protesting against the European war was adopted. Another resolution against the use of narcotics was also passed. Especial attention was called to the isolated members of the society.

VETERANS TO BE GIVEN AUTO RIDE

Expenses of Members of 68th Indiana, Which Meets Here, Will be Paid by Capt. J. H. Mauzy.

HE FORMERLY RESIDED HERE

The annual reunion of the survivors of the Sixty-Eighth Indiana regiment of the civil war, will be held here tomorrow and Thursday and arrangements are all complete for their entertainment. John F. Moses of this city, acting in the interest of Capt. J. H. Mauzy, formerly of this city, but now of Denver, Colo., has been looking after the details of the reunion although he was not a member of the regiment. Capt. Mauzy was a member of the regiment and he will pay all the expenses of the veterans while they are in the city. They will likely be entertained at the Windsor hotel.

All of the sessions will be held in the court house. It is desired that the veterans be shown the city. They will be taken on an automobile tour tomorrow afternoon. Guy Gordon, whose father was a member of the regiment, has been delegated to look after this detail. It is believed that about fifteen automobiles will be needed. Those who can furnish machines are requested to notify Mr. Gordon and be at the court house tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock.

The attendance is not expected to be very large as the regiment was recruited in the southern part of the state. John C. Humes, of near New Salem, is a member of the executive committee. Miss White, daughter of the late Capt. White who was a member of the regiment, is secretary of the reunion organization and will be present.

SMALL BLAZE WEST OF CITY

Barn Owned by Isaac Campbell is Destroyed.

A barn owned by Isaac Campbell, in Cole's lane, west of the city, burned this afternoon. A large amount of hay was lost. The origin is not known and when discovered the mow was in flames. A small son of Mr. Campbell's saw the blaze, but it had gained such a headway that it would have been impossible to fight it and the crowd kept the flames from spreading to the surrounding property. Some one turned in an alarm from box 134, corner of Spencer and Third streets, which was about three-quarters of a mile from the scene. The fire department did not go all the way to the fire as it was outside of the city limits.

PLAYGROUNDS TO BE DEDICATED

Program Will be Given in Coliseum in City Park Next Friday Afternoon, it is Announced.

SPEAKERS FROM OUTSIDE

E. Z. Hawkins, Who Gave Connersville Playgrounds, and Mrs. Emma Baler Will Give Talk.

Arrangements for the formal opening of the public playgrounds Friday-afternoon have about been completed. A fine program is being arranged. The program will be given in the Coliseum, which is near the playgrounds in the city park.

E. Z. Hawkins, of Connersville, will be one of the speakers. Mr. Hawkins recently donated to the city of Connersville a three-acre tract to be used for a playground and his talk should be quite interesting. The Connersville playground is now in operation and has proved as big a success as the one here. The Rushville playground has been open for some time but was never formally dedicated.

An orchestra has been secured and by holding it in the Coliseum a large crowd can be taken care of. Other speakers on the program will include Will M. Sparks; Mrs. Emma Baler, of Indianapolis, who is connected with the state superintendent of public instruction's office; Mrs. J. D. Case, president of the association, which is in control of the playgrounds here, and Dr. J. B. Kinsinger of the city school board.

The day's events will end with a benefit show at the Gem theatre that night. Harry Tutweiler, commissioner of the playgrounds in Indianapolis, will be present and will show a ten minute's program of moving pictures of the children at play in the Indianapolis public playgrounds. Mr. Tutweiler will give a talk along with the picture. The scenes are taken from all the public playgrounds in Indianapolis and gives a good idea of the benefits to be derived from a public playground. Besides this picture the regular program will be given.

The children are taking more interest in the park playgrounds every day and there is not a time when they are not crowded. It is estimated that one hundred and twenty-five children are in attendance at the grounds every day. Since making the rules last week, the superintendent has experienced little trouble and everything is operated in an orderly manner.

TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYED

Austrian Vessel Goes Down When it Hits Mine in Harbor.

(By United Press.)

Rome, Aug. 18.—A message from Pola received today says that Austrian torpedo boat No. 19 struck a submerged mine at the entrance of the Harbor and was destroyed. Only a single member of the crew is said to have been saved.

The Austrian torpedo boat “No. 19” was 128 feet long, built at Elbing in 1896 and had a speed of 18 knots. She carried a crew of twenty men.

About half of the meters have been put in by the city and the work is progressing rapidly. They hope to finish the work before the winter months.

SUGAR MARKET IS STATIONARY

No Increase Noted in Price For Few Days But Tendency in All Things is to go Higher.

ALL BUSINESS AFFECTED

War Makes Itself Felt in Practically Every Line Because of Interruption of Shipping.

The sugar market has held steady for several days, which gives the impression, local grocers say, that there will not be many more increases. It is not at all certain, however, they say, that the price will remain stationary. No quotations were offered on sugar either yesterday of Saturday.

Sugar has done enough skyrocketing in the last two weeks to last for a year, in the minds of housewives who are in the very heart of the fruit canning season. Two weeks ago it was wholesaling at $4.72 a hundred pounds and now the wholesale price is $8.82. This shows that the price has almost doubled.

The increase in the price of sugar has stimulated the local trade in a large measure. There has been a rush to get plenty of sugar on hands before it reaches ten cents, as it is predicted in many quarters that it will. One farmer last week bought a barrel of sugar from a local grocery for fear the price would go even higher.

Rushville grocers say that since the war in Europe started, there has been a general tendency towards higher prices in all things. One grocer reports that he read in a trade journal that all canned goods will increase from seven and a half to ten cents a dozen wholesale because of the decrease in the supply of tin from which the cans are made. Most of the tin is made in Wales and European countries.

Together with sugar, beans and flour are the only staples which have been increased any noticeable amount. The price of coffee is steady, with a little increase over the market price before the war broke.

The explanation for the sudden jump in the price of sugar is that more than half of the supply used in the United States is imported from Germany. The sugar is manufactured there from the sugar beet and that the crop must be taken care of in September or the beets will rot in the ground. As many of the growers have been called to arms no one is left to care for the crop and the exportations from the country will be very small. It is said that German

WANTS TO KEEP WAR OUT OF EAST

National German Alliance Today Requests President Wilson to Use His Influence With Japan.

HE WILL KEEP HANDS OFF

Indicated by Reiteration That Wilson's Believes Japan's Act is in Good Faith.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Aug. 18.—The National German Alliance, with headquarters at Philadelphia, today telegraphed President Wilson, asking that he and congress appeal to Japan not to carry the war into the Far East. The alliance claims there is no reason to oust Germany from the Far East and suggest that resort be made to the Hague to adjust the difficulty over Kiae Chau.

The White House today emphasized against President Wilson's declaration of yesterday that the obligation of neutrality on this nation forbids discussion of the Japanese-German situation.

President Wilson's only statement situation has been his acceptance of the Japanese ultimatum in good faith. Reiteration of the president's position was interpreted as meaning he will absolutely keep hands off in the present situation.

Secretary of State Bryan and Charge D'Affairs VonHaimhausen of the German embassy conferred with the state department today over the Japanese ultimatum and the situation of Americans in Germany. Although the appointment was sought by the German charge, neither he nor the secretary of state would discuss the meeting.

Herr VonHaimhausen came to Washington today from New York where he was in conference yesterday with the German consul general and officials of the German-American societies interested in furnishing war news from the German viewpoint. The charge expected to remain in Washington the remainder of the summer and re-open the embassy here.

The charge also sought information about the cable situation. Inasmuch however, as the administration has reached no decision as to whether the cable should be censored the same as the German wireless stations no definite information could be given the German representative.

FRANCE AGGRESSIVE IN UPPER ALSACE

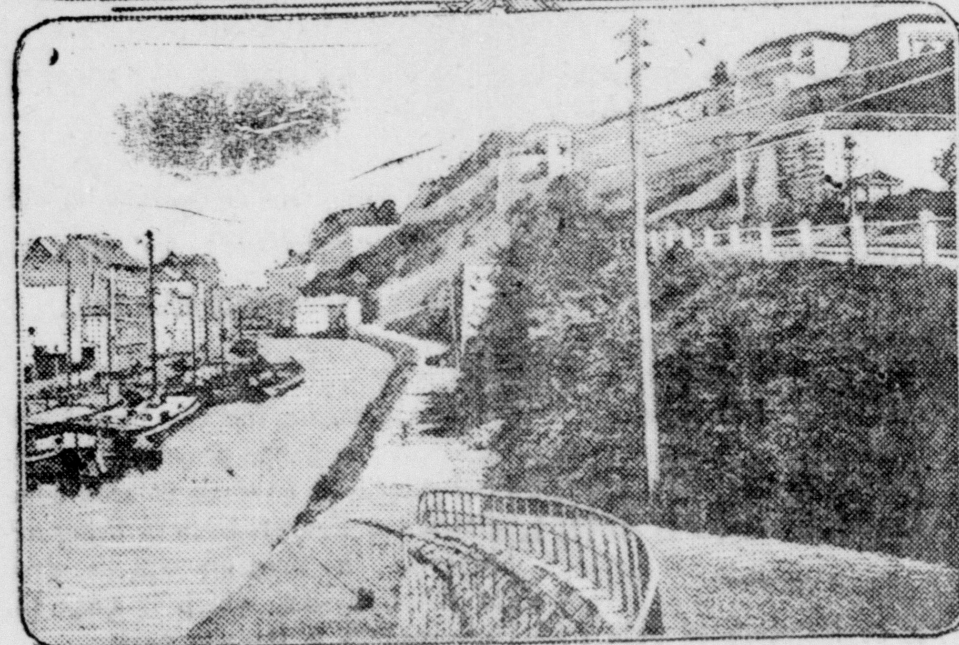

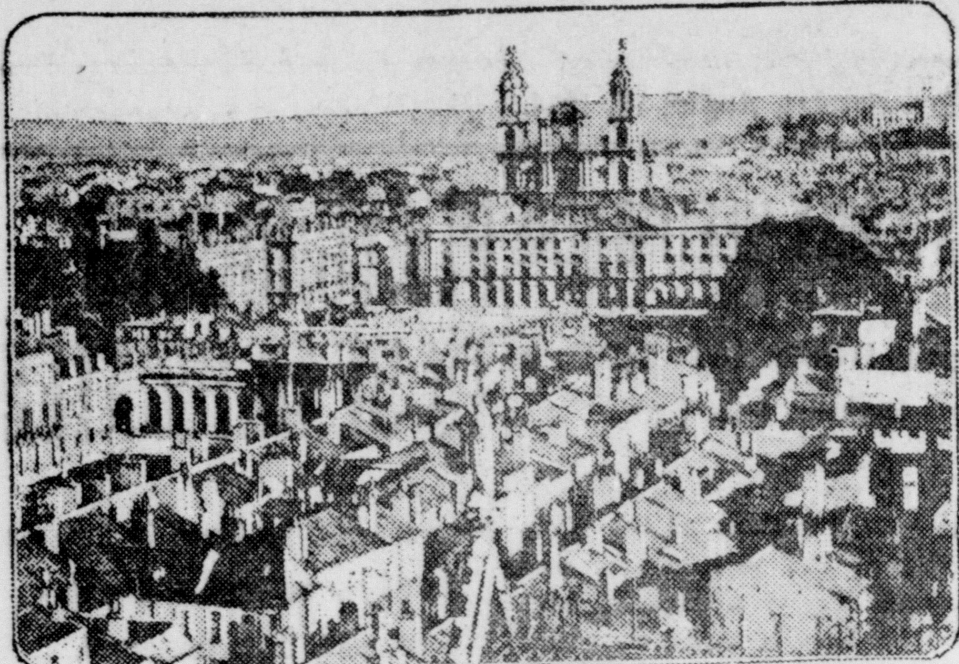

Enormous Army Which Crossed Frontier is Pressing German Army Which Lines The Rhine.

SWISS TO GUARD NEUTRALITY

Basle, Switzerland, Aug. 18.—France has assumed the aggressive in upper Alsace. An enormous army, which poured across the frontier from Belfort, is pressing the German army which lines the Rhine. The French movement is from all four points. Already sanguinary fighting is in progress and the losses on both sides are enormous.

The Swiss frontier guard is massed to prevent the defeated forces violating the Swiss neutrality. The sound of the firing is plainly heard here. The real fighting is believed to be on a line from Altkirch north through Thann. The French are plainly determined if possible to drive the Germans from Upper Alsace so the French army which is reported here to have penetrated the Vorges mountains and to be moving through the Shirmock valley toward Rosheim cannot be flanked by the German troops who are massed along the Rhine near the Swiss frontier.

Namur, Belgium, and Nancy, France, Important Cities In European War.

Photos by American Press Association.

Namur, Belgium, and Nancy, France, are two important cities in the early fighting of the European war. After the attack and occupation of Liege, Belgium, by the Germans, it appeared certain that they would press on to Namur, about twenty-seven miles to the southwest. Namur is a strongly fortified city, its main fortress setting high on a rocky part of the old town, which is located at the confluence of the Meuse and Sambre rivers. Belgian and French troops manned the forts. Nancy is located on the river Meurthe, near the German border. The French army made it the base of its operations in the invasion of Alsace-Lorraine. A picture of Nancy is shown at top.

ounded by fourteen forts all constructed of steel and concrete and manned by heavy artillery and a wealth of machine guns of the latest improved Krupp pattern. Artillery is being sent forward to aid the French but it is admitted that the work of getting the heavy siege guns through the passes of the Vosges and through the dense forests of upper Alsace will be a tremendous task. However, the report that the French forces threatens Strassburg is of tremendous importance to the French because of the enthusiasm that it is bound to create in the entire French army.

REPORTS AUSTRIAN LOSS OF 15,000 MEN

Servian Premier Wires Enemies Are Routed With Heavy Casualties in Sabatz Mountains.

ARTILLERY IS LEFT BEHIND

(By United Press.)

Athens, August 18.—Premier Passitch of Servia wires the capital here that an Austrian attacking army which tried to penetrate the Sabatz mountains has been routed and that 15,000 have been killed wounded or captured. Fourteen cannon have been captured.

The Austrians were trapped in a mountain valley by a strong Servian detachment which was supported by machine guns mounted in advantageous places. The attacking Austrians were surprised so suddenly that it was impossible for them to form a battle line and they retreated in confusion leaving their artillery behind. The Servians are reported to be hotly pursuing the survivors.

SHOULD CEDE PROVINCE BACK

In Order to Prevent Slaughter, Charge Says Today That Would Be Best Course For Germany.

HE HAS NO FAITH IN JAPAN

Haimhausen Says at Washington He Does Not Think She Will Turn Kiau Chau Back to China.

(By United Press.)

Washington, August 18.—To prevent terrible slaughter of Germans in Kiau Chau, Charge Haimhausen of the German embassy today said he believed the best thing Germany could do would be to cede the province back to China. He was greatly concerned after a conference with Secretary Bryan over the Japanese ultimatum. Haimhausen said he had no advice from Berlin.

"Germany has only three thousand soldiers in Kiau Chau," he said, "and with the present fortifications there it would not be possible successfully to resist a Japanese attack."

"Germany proposed at the outset of the war the neutralization of the territory in the east but this was refused by Japan."

The charge said he has "absolutely no faith" in Japan's statements that she would turn Kiau Chau over to China. He said Japan would be "like England, always making promises and never keeping them."

REGARDED WITH SUSPICION

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 18.—Announcement was made today that Bulgaria has been declared in a state of siege. With this action taken by the Bulgarian government and steps being taken by other Balkan states, it is generally believed that the purchase of the German cruisers Breslau and Goeben by Turkey is regarded with suspicion and may be followed by additional complications.

John Kennedy yesterday resumed his duties at the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company after a two weeks' vacation.

HOG CHOLERA IS NOT SO GENERAL

State veterinarian Reports That all Stock in Indiana is in Unusually Good Health Conditions

NOT AS BAD AS LAST YEAR

Farms Now Infected Have Not Been Cleaned Properly—Suggests Law of Killing Calves.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, August, 18.—Stock throughout Indiana is in an unusually healthy condition just now, according to Dr. A. F. Nelson, state veterinarian. Although hog cholera is said by him to be "prevalent," it is not so general by any means as it was at this time last year. All hog-raising counties have from two to four cholera-infested farms at this time, but this is not alarming, he said.

The healthy condition of hogs in Indiana was demonstrated last Tuesday in the Indianapolis stock yards, he said. There were twelve thousand hogs in the yards and inspectors passed them all as not having visible signs of sickness. Dr. Nelson said this was extraordinary and possibly would not occur again in years.

Dr. Nelson said that the farms now infested are the ones on which no attempt has been made to clean away infection, or in which the young pigs were not vaccinated as soon as they were big enough for the "double treatment." Pigs are strong enough for this about the time they reach the 60-pound class, he said. Most pigs have been weaned now, he said, and are right in the dangerous period. He said that pigs from sows that had had cholera and were therefore immune for the time at least would not have cholera until they were weaned because the sow's milk seemed to act as a protection. The strange food however, made the pigs susceptible to cholera, and in the majority of cases where cholera now exists, it is from this source, he said.

The veterinarian said that build-ups should be whitewashed. Straw-stacks cannot be disinfected, he said, and should be burned on farms that are cholera infected. If they are not burned then they should be spread out thin as fertilizer and the pigs should be kept off these fields for some time.

No cases of anthrax, the fatal disease that attacks all animals, have been reported in Indiana this year, though there were several last year in the northwestern portion of Indiana. This is a soil disease and is believed to remain in the soil for from 30 to 50 years. The cases last year are believed to have come following dredging of swamp lands where the disease was uncovered.

"Blackleg," so called because of the postmortem appearance, has been little heard from this year. It affects calves under 2 years old. Vaccine especially prepared to meet this disease should be used on infected farms.

Dr. Nelson said he had noted an increasing tendency to sell young calves and gave this as his explanation for the fact that apparently there were less beef cattle in Indiana this year than formerly. He said a farmer can get from $12 to $16 for calves from 3 to 4 weeks old and can by disposing of the calves increase his milk supply. Dr. Nelson said that never again through the life of a calf will there be such a ready profit. He suggested a law preventing the killing of calves before a certain age.

BRITISH LEADERS LEAVES FOR FRONT

Sir John French Starts in High Powered Motor After an all Night Conference

IS CHEERED BY THE CROWD

(By United Press.)

Paris, Aug. 18.—Sir John French, the British commander in charge of the British troops in France after a conference with the general staff, which lasted a good portion of last night, left for the front today. A big high-powered motorcar, with a racing chauffeur was placed at the disposal of the British commander. As he entered it a huge crowd in the streets cheered him. All information regarding the whereabouts of the British forces is withheld for strategic reasons. Neither is it known where General French went.

F KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

SKIRMISHES ALL ALONG FRONTIER

Russian Troops Active Fighting Back Austrians and Germans, St. Petersburg Report.

CROSS THE LINE A FEW TIMES

(By United Press.)

St. Petersburg, Aug. 18.—The Russian cavalry is in action along miles of the Prussian and Austrian frontiers. The entire cavalry forces of the nation have been pushed to the front to prevent raids by either the Germans or the Austrians while the infantry was being mobilized. As a result it is stated that there had been numerous skirmishes in which heavy losses were sustained by the enemy but that none of them has assumed the importance of a general engagement.

Meanwhile the mobilization for all practical purposes is completed. Enroute to Moscow, the czar was greeted everywhere with outbursts of patriotic enthusiasm. It is stated here that he plans to go to the front as soon as it shall be determined where he can best serve the nation. An official statement issued by the war office today declared:

"The German frontier has been crossed by forces of the czar in at least six different places. Small German forces were driven back and several hundred prisoners taken."

AUSTRIA EMPEROR EIGHTY-FOUR TODAY

Franz Joseph Pounds Out Another Milestone—Receives Few Messages of Congratulations

RULED FOR SIXTY-SIX YEARS

(By United Press.)

Vienna, August 18.—Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria Hungary passed the 84th milestone of his life today. With a long record of misfortunes and tragedies that have relentlessly followed the Austrian royal House of Hapsburg the ruler's birthday comes today when his country is joined with Germany in an appalling war against eight nations of Europe who rose in battle protest against Austrian and German aggression. Franz Joseph is the oldest ruler both in point of age and length of reign of modern times. He will have ruled for 66 years in December—if the rigors of his position and the irresistible approach of the Grim Reaper do not claim him before that time. Instead of the usual unanimous messages of congratulations from every ruler and government of the world, the aged emperor today received such messages only from his own titled followers, from Emperor William of Germany and from the few nations with whom his country is not at war.

WARD WAS FOUND GUILTY

Fined for Drawing Revolver on Fred Osborn

Roscoe Ward was found guilty of drawing deadly weapons this morning by Squire Kratzer and fined one dollar and costs. An appeal will be taken to the circuit court. The affidavit was filed by Fred Osborn, living west of the city. Ward maintained that he was afraid Osborn was going to attack his father, John Ward and drew the revolver for protection. Squire Kratzer could not see this as an excuse and found him guilty. Osborn claimed Ward threatened to shoot and drew the revolver.

GERMAN CRUISERS ARE AT HONG KONG

Advices Received at Tokio Say They Show Effects of Fearful Battle From Shelling.

DECKS ARE RED WITH BLOOD

(By United Press.)

Tokio, Aug. 18.—Advices from Hong Kong say two German cruisers, disabled in battle, have been taken to that harbor as prizes of war. The cruisers, the dispatches say, show the effects of a fearful shell fire, their upper works being riddled while their decks are red with blood. The authorities refuse to permit the identity of the cruisers to become known.

Last Thursday a similar dispatch referring to two cruisers badly damaged by shell fire was received from Tokio. It is stated that the cruisers were in the outer harbor of Hong Kong but this dispatch then said that the cruisers were either French or English and had been disabled in a battle. The similarity of the two dispatches throws considerable doubt on the accuracy of this latest report.

DRAMA COMEDY IS A PROFITABLE PROJECT.

Many grown-ups have learned that it pays to advertise and now a crowd of boys and girls have found that it pays. The five children who produced "The Man of the Forest," the big drama comedy, as the manager styled it, at Readle Casady's home yesterday afternoon, cleared thirty cents, according to the financial statement of the business managers, Louis Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, and Cassel Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell. The boxoffice receipts piled up to $1.60 at a "cent a throw," and the expenses were $1.30. The dramatic company invested in a case of pop and sold it. With true dramatic instinct, the actors quarreled frequently and the head manager, Louis Smith, confided in some friends that he had some difficulty in keeping the company together because they fussed and were continually threatening to quit. In addition to the two managers, who had acting parts, the actors were Phyllis and Readle Casady children of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Casady, and Horace Pearsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Pearsey.

The annual Newhouse-Blackledge family reunion will be held Thursday in the city park.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Lefforge, wife of Ephraim Lefforge, who died yesterday afternoon at her home in Orange, will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at the late residence and burial will take place in the Orange cemetery.

It is reported here today that a strong detachment of Chinese troops has been started toward Kiao Chau, apparently for the purpose of forestalling any outsiders and recapturing the territory for the Chinese empire.

MASS MEETING IS ON FOR TONIGHT

Chicago Housewives Plan to Protest Against Sudden Boost in Meat and Other Food Prices.

ASSERT WAR IS A PRETEXT

Big Packers Sure to Come in For Scoring—Expecting Remedies Will be Suggested.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 18.—Arrangements were all completed today for the big mass meeting of Chicago housewives to be held in the Grand Opera house tonight to protest against the sudden boost in meat and other food prices since the outbreak of the European war.

The call for the meeting was sent out by Mrs. George A. Soden, vice-president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage league. Joining in the protest movement were many of the most prominent clubwomen in Chicago and the mass meeting had the sympathies of several councilmen and other city officials interested in the marketing problem.

The big Chicago meat packers are sure to come in for a scoring tonight. The women complain that the packers have used the European war as a pretext for making unwarranted increases in the price of meat. They assert that while the price of hogs advanced only about 1½ cents per pound because of a shortage in the hog market, the packers jumped the wholesale price of pork from 6 to 9½ cents a pound and tried to force butchers to buy frozen pork from cold storage warehouses.

Several remedies will be suggested at tonight's meeting. The establishment of five great municipal markets in Chicago will be proposed. A city-wide boycott of women who will agree not to buy meat until the packers lower the prices is a possible outcome of the demonstration.

The Hotel Adlon, where fully 75 per cent. of the Americans visiting Berlin stay, is trusting scores of these in Berlin and is actually advancing money to them on their personal "I O. U.'s". Stories printed in the United States which tell of alleged maltreatment of Americans by Germans are absolutely without foundation. In the first day of the war, a few were caught in anti-English demonstrations but since then there have been no instances where Americans have received anything but the most courteous treatment.

New York Is In Grip of War Spirit As It Never Was Before

BY CARLTON TEN EYCK.
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Aug. 18.—War and war alone has gripped New York for the past two weeks. On the street in the subway on the "L"—everywhere one hears nothing but war talk. It is as if Manhattan itself is in the center of the great European conflict.

And New York with its great mixed population is greatly concerned about the war too. When the first news of the then impending conflict was published crowds immediately besieged the consulates of the involved nations. Servians Austrians Frenchmen German and Englishmen flocked to their respective headquarters to get official news of the situation in their native countries. When it became apparent that there would be war and a great war—hundreds and thousands there who proclaimed themselves willing even anxious to give their country their services.

New York immediately became the meeting place for all the foreign reservists in the United States. From the South west and north they came in pairs in fives in tens, twenties and hundreds. They were grim—were these men coming here to depart for their countries to help the fatherland in the titanic struggle now on. They gathered in groups and talked quietly about the situation. Some there were—mostly young men—who paraded and sang patriotic songs. But these were in the minority. The vast part of great armies of reservists who gathered here came quietly and waited quietly and grimly until they sailed for distant shores where they may meet their death.

It was at the sailing of ships these reservists back to their native countries that the most touching scenes ever witnessed at New York piers were staged, aged parents, daughters sweethearts and wives gathered to see their loved leave—possibly never to return. Many there were who never gave a sign of grief that was theirs. Others wept and moaned until veteran newspaper men—hardened by years of work amid touching scenes—turned away with tears streaming down their faces.

One elderly couple in particular attracted attention when the French ship Lorraine sailed away with 1200 reservists abroad. This couple had two sons returning to France to fight. The four stood together on the pier talking but little. When the time came for parting the father first walked over to the eldest son and placing his hands on his shoulders kissed him on each cheek. Then the mother embraced him. Not a tear was shed nor was there any visible sign of emotion apparent. Then the father walked towards the younger son. As he did a sob escaped him and his body shook with suppressed emotion. But only for a moment. The aged man halted straightened and mumbled something in French and kissed his youngest son as he had the other.

"What did he say?" inquired a newspaper man of a Frenchman who stood nearby with tears streaming down his face.

"He begged his boy's pardon for showing emotion" was the reply.

The mother did not give a sign of emotion as long as her boys were in sign. But as she started to walk up the gangplank to the pier she collapsed. Moaning "my boys" she was half supported and half-carried by her husband to the earline.

Poor old Broadway! The European war has dealt it an awful joke. The supply of champagne and imported beer is about exhausted and there isn't a chance of getting anymore. To the uninitiated that may not seem like a calamity but believe us it is. Cafe proprietors are moaning and wringing their hands in real grief because it won't be long before one of their chief resources of revenue will be cut off.

Of course champagne and beer are both made in the U. S. A.—lots of it in fact. But the high prices that are charged for the foreign "joy-water" won't go on the home product stuff and therefore the tears.

Another result of the war is the scarcity of waiters. Hundreds of waiters employed at New York's best cafes are foreigners and they are returning to their native countries by the score.

Cafe proprietors are badly worried. They can't replace them very quickly and they declare that Americans never will be the efficient waiters foreigners are.

brokers are paying cash for sugar at New York which condition indicates that they do not believe that the crop can be handled.

Brokers declare that the investigation of the sugar prices will reveal these conditions and that the high price is due entirely to the expected shortage. United States furnishes a small part of the sugar that is used here, it is said, and that Cuba, one of the greatest sugar producing countries, will be depended upon very largely to supply the world.

All imported drugs and paint stuffs are higher, which has caused Rushville physicians some little concern. They even now are unable to get kinds of medicines which it is imperative they have in order to treat certain kinds of diseases. One of this class is "606," which is made in Europe. The supply on hands in the United States is very low and all efforts of two or three local physicians to get some from jobbing houses since the war started have failed.

Molasses and syrups are moving along with the higher cost of raw sugar. Linen yarns from abroad are twenty to forty per cent. higher and are still climbing. Tea values show a higher tendency because of the difficulty of obtaining new supplies. With Japanese and Indian shipments cut off, rice values are higher. Spices are held at high prices. They come from China, Japan, India and other foreign countries.

German broadcloths are up twenty per cent. and the supplies of English and French broadcloths are growing low. Woolen and worsted men's wearing apparel prices are starting upwards, some lines having advanced already as much as five per cent. The hemp and jute markets have been at a standstill for several days with no offerings. War risks and foreign exchange practically prohibit trading. Manufacturers of prints and ginghams have been hit by the high cost of foreign dye stuffs and are not quoting prices for future delivery.

The cutting off of foreign goods has sent burlap prices skyward and the substitution of heavy cottons to make bags is elevating the cost of coarse sheetings. Crude rubber has doubled in price. The carrying trade between Brazil and the United States is in the hands of the Dutch, German and English ships, and shipments have been stopped.

What is true of the things mentioned is true of practically all markets. The war is making itself felt in almost every line of business.

French People Remember War of 1870 When German Soldiers Took French Bronze Timepieces

THEY WANT TO RETALIATE

(By United Press.)

Paris, Aug. 18.—"Don't forget to bring back the clocks" is the request of the crowds in Paris and the provinces to all troops leaving for the front. Firmly convinced that the French soldiers are to march on Berlin, all are admonished not to forget the timepieces.

The demand of the French for German clocks grows out of the war of 1870. During the Franco-Prussian conflict the Germans entering France took a fancy to the French bronze clocks and when the war was over scarcely a single one could be found in the country.

GERMAN STAFF NOT SATISFIED

Sudden Shift of Military Operations From North to South Certainly Means This

SEEK ANOTHER ENTRANCE

Fighting About Dynant Indicates Exploring to Find Another Way Into French Territory

(By United Press.)

New York, Aug. 18.—The sudden shift of military operations in Belgium from North to South means that the German staff cannot be strategically satisfied with the information secured by last week's reconnaissances west of Liege. Undoubtedly the fighting about Dynant indicates an attempt at exploring another way to enter France.

Theoretically the allies ought to be better prepared for an engagement west of Dynant than if the Germans attempted to send their offensive army across the Meuse North of Liege.

The main Belgian highway east of the Meuse runs south from Liege and crosses the Meuse at Dynant whence it proceeds in several directions toward the French frontier. Last September the Belgian army conducted military maneuvers for the first time in five years, and this very district about Dynant was the site selected. King Albert made Dynant his headquarters and the problem set by the Belgian general staff was to drive back a German army crossing the Meuse below Namur and moving toward the French frontier.

This the defending Belgian forces succeeded in doing.

Developments of the utmost value in resisting Germany's present attack were worked out at that time by the Belgian general staff.

It is a curious commentary on the difference between theory and practice, that French military authorities criticised the Belgian maneuvers declaring the German army never would try to pass through Belgium so far north.

Russia is increasing her reconnaissances in Eastern Germany and Austria, but her army cannot be ready to move in force for some time. Reports of battles in the eastern theatre of war are without significance. Russian mobilization is dependent on the speed of country carts in many districts.

The presence of small Russian cavalry bands in the interior of Posen and west Prussia and in Galicia should be reported with great frequency from now on. The objective of these skirmishes ought to be not primarily to locate the German and European troops but to spread news of the czar's promise to autonomy to a United Poland. How the Poles accept this assurance will profoundly influence Russian offensive strategy.

Invariable French successes in seizing the passes over the Vosges are doubtless true as reported by the French government. The Vosges mountain roads are far better arranged by nature for military maneuvers on the French side than on the German.

This gives the allies a considerable advantage in reaching the west of the mountains. The descent on the eastern side, in the face of heavy German fire, should permit the issue of bulletins of victories in Berlin.

ALL GERMANS ARE RESTRICTED

London Subjects of Kaiser are Without Telephone Service as Precaution Against Spies

PERMITS FOR MANY THINGS

On Penalty of Imprisonment They Have to Furnish Complete Record at Police Station

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 18.—All Germans now in London are without telephone service. At the order of the government, Germans who have been telephone subscribers were disconnected and will be refused further service. This action was taken as a further precaution against the operation of German spies.

When the war first broke out there were about 30,000 Germans in London. Many have returned to fight for the kaiser. A majority of those remaining have now registered as there is a penalty of heavy fine or imprisonment for German subjects who fail to appear at the police stations and furnish a complete record of their business in London.

As a result, Germans are now prohibited from having the following without permits: Firearms, ammunition or explosives; petroleum spirit, naphtha or inflammable liquid; motor-car or motorcycle; carrier pigeons; any apparatus which might be used for signalling; any cipher code or means of conducting secret correspondence.

Many German spies were arrested soon after war was declared and letters designed to aid England's enemy are said to have been interrupted by the postal authorities.

All public buildings in London are heavily guarded by troops or police. Several lines of wire netting have been placed about the general post-office. The wire netting covers all openings which might be reached from the roadway and is designed as a protection against bombs. Inside the office troops and detectives are constantly on duty.

A CHARMING ARRANGEMENT OF THE POPULAR LONG TUNIC

We have had many extreme and unusual style features the last season or two; some have been really clever and attractive, and others not as pleasing, but none have caught on and become as generally popular as the Russian and boot-top tunic. These tunics are plain, plaited or gathered according to the fancy of the wearer; some are set on to a deep yoke which fits smoothly about the hips, and then again the yoke is draped in girdle effect as shown in No. 8395-8392. Dull brown taffeta fashions this costume, relieved by a brownish, Roman striped silk. The bodice is rendered effective by a pointed Japanese collar; this tunic is set on at deep yoke depth and is pointed in front after the manner of the Premet apron frock. This dress requires for size 36, 3 3/4 yards of 36-inch material for the bodice (8395) and 4 1/2 yards of 42-inch material for the skirt (8392).

A draped afternoon frock is illustrated in 8390; it is fashioned of one of the Dolly Varden taffetas and the long overskirt is caught up slightly on one side, showing a plaited underskirt of white. It is a simple design, perfectly suited to summer dances and teas. Size 36 requires in this dress 4 1/2 yards of 36-inch material. No. 8395, sizes, 34 to 42. No. 8392, sizes, 22 to 30. No. 8390, sizes, 34 to 42. Each pattern, 15 cents.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and enclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust. Address Pattern Department, care of this paper.

Chamber of Commerce of Indianapolis Points Out Need of Vocational Education in its Report

RECOMMENDATIONS ARE MADE

Prepares to Take Advantage of Proposed Federal Law—Lapp Author of Both Laws

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 18.—This city, through the committee on education of its Chamber of Commerce, has taken the first step to prepare to take advantage of the proposed federal vocational education law. John A. Lapp, chairman of the committee, announced today the recommendations of the committee. Indianapolis has been watched in educational circles for the initial move in this regard, for Mr. Lapp wrote both the Indiana vocational law and the federal vocational education bill. He was appointed by President Wilson on the federal commission. Indiana is expected to take the lead in vocational matters.

Mr. Lapp today explained for the United Press the recommendations of his committee.

BY JOHN A. LAPP
(Written for United Press.)

The Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce through its committee on education has just published a report on Part-time Vocational Education in Indianapolis. This report is of unusual significance because it calls attention to facts which are prevalent in all cities. It emphasizes the demand for vocational education and calls upon the city to take active steps at once to provide for the education of the great mass of boys and girls who leave school to enter into unskilled jobs which offer little opportunity for future training and which leaves the young man or woman at maturity incapable of earning more than a child's wage.

The committee reports that there are fully 10,000 youths in the city between the ages of 14 and 20 years of age who left school soon after they were 14 without vocational preparation to fit them for the task of making a living and most of them with less than a seventh grade elementary education.

The committee declares that "A life without a career is a calamity to any youth" and demands that these young people who most need the ministrations of education shall not be neglected because for any reason they have left school and gone to work. The report declares that the educational system should be truly democratic and that every effort should be made to educate every child whether within or without school halls and that the schools should meet the educational demands and rights of all the children of all the people.

As a remedy for the existing conditions, the report recommends that the schools and the industries co-operate so that the young men and women who have gone to work may be prepared for more efficient work and greater responsibilities. The plan of part-time education is proposed by which the committee means that the boys and girls who are at work should give a part of their working time to instruction carried on by the schools. In some cases, it is expected that a few hours a day will be used for instruction; others, a few hours a week; in others a week in school and a week in shop may be arranged for; in space of seasonal trade, short courses in the dull seasons may be given.

Some of the ends which the report of the committee aims at are: (a) Training for better understanding of the specialized machines and modern factory work. (b) Training of unskilled workers to develop capacity for advancement where opportunity for promotion exists. (c) Training which will give specific information along definite lines so that workers may in a brief space of time derive concrete benefits. (d) Training for those who are specialized operatives to be the best specialists. (e) Training which will encourage young people to continue specialized courses and thus continue the usefulness of the school for a longer period. (f) Training for workers in juvenile occupations to enable them to gain entrance into occupations suitable for adults. (g) Training to give a knowledge of industry to young boys and girls and to make practical application of the knowledge which they have secured; (h) Training in citizenship for all and in domestic science for all girls.

The recommendation is made that the city proceed under the Indiana vocational law and establish vocational education at once, making part time education courses especially prominent. State aid for such work is offered to the extent of two-thirds of cost of teachers employed. Many other cities in the state are planning to give work along these lines, notably Evansville, South Bend, Gary, Hammond, Elkhart, Anderson and others.

ARE PENETRATING PRUSSIAN FRONTIER

Russian Cossacks, Supported by Light Artillery and Mounted Infantry, Push Across Border

GERMANS ARE FALLING BACK

(By United Press.)

St. Petersburg, Aug. 18.—Strong forces of Cossacks, supported by light artillery machine guns and mounted infantry are penetrating the Prussian frontier. The advance was reported to have pushed forward nearly to Insternburg, having followed the line of the railway from Eydtukhnen. The German columns are reported contesting the advance but falling back slowly toward the line of their main fortifications.

The columns engaged are purely reconnoitering parties as the main Russian column is still at Kovno and Vilna. It is not believed any general invasion of Germany will be undertaken until the entire mobilization movement is completed.

Many prisoners are reported taken, but all details regarding losses on either side are withheld by the war office.

NOT TO TRY TO HOLD CAPITAL

With Capture of Brussels Imminent, Belgian Officials Emphasize Its Lack of Importance.

GERMAN ARMY TOTALS 500,000

Slowly But Surely it is Routing The Belgian-French Defenders Back on Brussels.

(By United Press.)

Brussels, Aug. 18.—Slowly but surely the German attacking columns are routing the Belgian-French defenders back on Brussels.

Despite a rigid censorship it is known that skirmishing which began at daylight at a number of points along the line, but with most strength displayed at a point west of south of Huy, has steadily increased. The German advance line of cavalry skirmishers is strongly supported by rapid firers mounted on motor trucks. All of the national records have been transferred from Brussels to Antwerp and officials of the war office are emphasizing the lack of strategic importance of Brussels.

The capture of the capital is believed certain. While no knowledge is obtainable for cabling of the exact British-French position, it is not believed here and allied armies will sacrifice many men for the sentimental purpose of holding the capital against the German combined armies, now known to number not less than 500,000 men. The German movement will sweep south of the capital but it is believed certain the Northern army will be depended on to take the city and to divide if possible, the Belgian defenders, rolling a good part of it back to Antwerp.

The censorship is becoming more pronounced. All correspondents have been ordered to withdraw from the front and the war office is no longer issuing any bulletins. All governmental heads, the queen and the royal family have gone to Antwerp and the bulk of the funds in the Brussels banks have also been transferred to that city.

The sound of heavy artillery can be faintly heard in the city. It is supposed the German advance is following the roadstead leading from Huy.

Whether Namur has yet been besieged is not yet known but rumors are in circulation to that effect.

The war office last night insisted the German move southward from the vicinity of Liege had been checked, but it is known an attempt to renew it began at daylight today.

..Announcement..

We are preparing for a large Fall business. In order to insure our patrons the very best choice in high class merchandise, Mr. Charles A. Mauzy and Mr. Hugh E. Mauzy are at present in New York, where they are brought in direct contact with the newest creations which the Eastern market affords. It is much more satisfactory to us as well as to the people of this city and county to visit the manufacturers. It is there that we may see their entire line and are offered a much greater choice than the man sent on the road can offer. While buying at home we are limited to a few samples—on the other hand, visiting the market means a larger stock from which our patrons may choose.

The people of this county and city should realize that it is in their interests that Mr. Mauzy and son buy where the greatest choice is afforded. We hope that you will show your appreciation of their efforts by looking over our extensive line of ready-to-wear merchandise for this Fall.

2,500 AMERICANS IN GENOA

Twice as Many in Switzerland Waiting to Get Home

(By United Press.)

Washington, Aug. 18.—Twenty-five hundred Americans are waiting in Genoa, Italy, for transportation back to the United States, the American consul wired the state department. He said that from reports he received, 5,000 more Americans will come from Switzerland as soon as transportation can be arranged.

ASKS U. S. CITIZENS TO BE IMPARTIAL

President Wilson Today Issues Statement to "My Countrymen" Concerning the War

ITS EFFECTS OUR MAKING

(By United Press.)

Washington, Aug. 18.—"Addressing my countrymen" President Wilson today issued a long statement calling upon citizens of the United States to confine their speech to the spirit of strict neutrality—which he defined as the spirit of impartiality and fairness—in the European war situation.

The president's statement follows:

"My fellow countrymen: I suppose that every thoughtful man in America has asked himself during these last troubled weeks, what influence the European war may exert upon the United States and I take the liberty of addressing a few words to you in order to point out that it is entirely within our choice what its effect upon us will be and to urge very earnestly upon you the sort of speech and conduct which will best safeguard the nation against distress and disaster.

"The effect of the war upon the United States will depend upon what American citizens say and do. Every man who really loves America will follow this advice."

CONCERN FELT FOR CARGO OF LUMBER

Twenty Cars Consigned to Vessel Lorca For Liverpool by Case-Fowler Co., of Macon, Ga.

VALUED AT ABOUT $60,000

The Case-Fowler Lumber company of Macon, Ga., of which J. D. Case of this city is a partner, consigned 20 cars of lumber to the steam ship Lorca for Liverpool, England, several days ago and considerable concern is expressed over the safe arrival of the vessel. The cargo of Macon Lumber is valued at from $50,000 to $60,000. So far the firm has not heard from Liverpool but has hopes of the safe landing of the cargo. The lumber, of the finest hardwood variety, was shipped from Macon to Savannah and there placed on board the Lorca. Besides the lumber from the Case-Fowler company, another Macon firm had about fifteen car loads on the ship.

FIRST OFFICIAL MENTION OF MOVE

British War Office Says Troops Were Transferred to Continent Without an Accident

IS NO ACTUAL INFORMATION

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 18.—The first mention of the British over-seas expedition by officials came today. But it was tantalizingly deficient in actual information, in-as-much as the expedition the number of men engaged or the time when it was started was withheld. The official statement, issued by the war bureau simply read:

"The embarkation, transportation and disembarkation of the expeditionary army, men as well as stores and munitions, was carried out with the greatest precision along the lines planned many months ago by the war office. There was not a single casualty and the expedition was landed at its destination in readiness to take the field."

3,500 AMERICANS ARE LEFT IN PARIS

Believed Today Those Remaining Will be Able to Leave for London Very Soon

MANY AMERICAN VOLUNTEERS

(By United Press.)

Paris, Aug. 18.—But 3,500 Americans are now in Paris, according to estimates made today by members of the embassy relief committee. It is believed that those remaining may soon be able to leave for London. Two weeks ago there were at least 7,500 Americans in the French capital but they have been pouring from the country daily and most of them reached London and have taken passage or will sail within the next two weeks for America.

The number of American volunteers to fight with the French army is growing daily. Andre Lesourd, an officer in the reserves, who is drilling the reserves, said there had been 200 enlistments today and more are expected. William Benjamin Thaw has volunteered for service in the French army and turned over his high-powered aeroplane to the government. Stephenson MacGregor, the American aviator, has also enlisted and with Thaw will probably be assigned to the aviation corps.
